

Jazz covers so many wonderful forms that it's often hard to describe.

In this fun and entertaining show, Alex Kyle runs the gauntlet of popular jazz forms.

From Dixieland to Cool Jazz. From "Show Tunes" to the Great American Songbook. Call it "swing", "smooth jazz" or "crooner tunes", Alex covers unforgettable songs made famous by such artists as Frank Sinatra, Nat 'King' Cole, Tony Bennett - and reimagined through later artists such as Harry Connick, Jr and Michael Bublé. It's assured that every audience will know and love every song.

Throw in fun interaction and a general dose of silliness and you have a show that's, well... SWINGSATIONAL!
