THE AUSTRALIAN TRIBUTE TO FRANKIE VALLI AND THE FOUR SEASONS VS. THE BEACH BOYS Tribute show

In 1963 "The Beach Boys" released "Surfers Rule", a tongue-in-cheek dig at their East Coast rivals, "Frankie Valli & The 4 Seasons". ("Four Seasons, you better believe it!" they chanted, while Brian Wilson mimicked Valli's wailing falsetto from "Walk Like A Man")

"The 4 Seasons" then responded in kind with "No Surfin' Today" a not-so-subtle dig at The Beach Boys!

From then on, it was ON!

A fierce rivalry grew between the East & West Coast factions fuelling each group to come up with better and better material, and WE (the world's music lovers) are the ones that benefited!

Over the ensuing decades, the music from these two great vocal groups became legend.

Now, you can decide for yourselves: who is the best vocal group of all time?
